

IAPESGW AWARDS 2021

Call for nominations – deadline July 1st, 2021

Dear members and interested friends,

With four months to go before the quadrennial 19th IAPESGW Hybrid World Congress 2021 is held in Tianjin, China, it is time to receive nominations for the long-standing and prestigious awards IAPESGW gives to honour outstanding women in the field.

Please consider the different awards and the contributions of women you have known who might qualify.

The nomination process is explained and requires:

- the permission of any person before nomination
- the CV of the nominee
- a letter of support stating how they have met the criteria and why they deserve the award.

All nominations must be emailed by July 1st to:

Rosa Diketmueller

Vice President - Chair of Executive Board Awards Panel

rosa.diketmueller@univie.ac.at

- and -

Kathy Ludwig

Secretary

kludwig@barry.edu

Thank you for your consideration,

Rosa

Rosa Diketmüller

IAPESGW AWARDS 2021

IAPESGW awards individual members who have made significant, sustained and outstanding contributions to the work of the Association in the areas of scholarly research, demonstrated active leadership, a legacy of positive influence on the lives of girls and women through physical education or sport research, a member who has sustained a strong reputation in the field of dance in education, and individuals who have over all outstanding contributions to the Association and its work or values.

AWARD / ITEMS	HONORARY MEMBERSHIP	DOROTHY AINSWORTH RESEARCH AWARD	LYNN VENDIEN INTERNATIONAL LEADERSHIP AWARD	YOUNG RESEARCHER AWARD	AUDREY BAMBRA LEGACY AWARD	DANCE DEVELOPMENT AWARD
PURPOSE	Awarded to individual members who have made a significant, sustained and outstanding contribution to the work of the Association.	Awarded to individuals in recognition of sustained contribution to scholarly research that furthers the aims of the Association.	Awarded to individuals who have demonstrated active leadership, especially with regard to international understanding and relationships that further the aims of the Association.	Awarded to a young researcher (under 35 years of age) for the best presentation at Congress	Awarded to individuals or organizations whose work has resulted in a legacy of positive influence on the lives of girls and women through physical education or sport. This can be at local, national or international level.	Awarded to honor a respected dance practitioner / researcher and / or teacher who has sustained a strong reputation over many years and continues to work in the field of Dance in Education
CRITERIA	CV and accompanying nomination outlining evidence of sustained and significant contribution to the aims of the Association.	CV and accompanying nomination outlining evidence of sustained research and publications excellence in line with the aims of the Association.	CV and accompanying nomination outlining evidence of leadership in the field that has improved international relations or understanding related to improving the quality of lives for girls and women.	Clarity of research design. Originality of topic. Integrity of analysis. Quality of presentation skills.	Evidence of work for which the nomination is made. Evidence of impact on girls and women in the field of physical education or sport.	CV and accompanying nomination outlining evidence of sustained contribution to dance in education, e.g. in schools, teacher training, professional development, or community context. Impact and legacy.

NOMINATION PROCESS

With the exception of the Young Researcher Award, nominations should be made in writing or emailed to rosa.diketmueller@univie.ac.at and kludwig@barry.edu up to 1st of July 2021. Nominations should be 300 – 500 words with accompanying CV or additional support where appropriate. Clarity of ways in which the nominee meets the specific Award criteria will form the basis of final decisions to be made by the Executive Board.

All nominations must give the Name, Country, Affiliation, and Contact details for the nominee and proposer(s). All nominations need the prior consent of the nominee and this consent must be declared at the end of the written nomination.