

Motivation letter

Greetings

I am Maryam Koushkie Jahromi professor of exercise physiology at Shiraz University, have the history of Cooperation with IAPESGW for about 10 years as one of my great honors. During these years I have cooperated in various congress by IAPESGW (as scientific committee member), publishing books some chapter books such as , Muslim women in sport, lifelong engagement in physical activity, ageing , physical activity and health, inspiring women in sport... and recently published a book as coeditor (Women and sport in Asia) , being as a member of a group from 14 countries for providing accept and respect declaration , trying to cooperate with IAPESGW in every necessary subject. I contributed in organizing a regional symposium by IAPESGW in Iran and in two other congresses in my by attendance of IAPESGW members Iran.

I decide to continue my cooperation with IAPESGW to cooperate in achieving its goals as improving women and girls participation in physical activity by respecting cultures and accepting diversities. To achieve these aims I will continue my previous cooperation in every field, also I will have some innovations in some fields which need IAPESGW. For example professional sport in transgender athletes is a field which require IAPESGW help and I will provide a research group of IPAPESGW members to find an international scientific moral suggestion by providing meetings, congresses and publications for it.
